

User survey of the housing situation of unaccompanied minors

What do you think about your housing and the support you are receiving?

To make things work better, we want to know what you think works well and what needs improvement. You are free to decide what you want to answer, and no one will be able to see your specific responses. Your opinions are very important to us.

At the end of the survey, you choose whether you want to send in your responses. It is very important that you tick the last box so that your responses are submitted correctly.
